

Person to Person (P2P) Services Terms and Conditions

These Terms of Use set forth the terms and conditions under which the Service is offered. The Service allows a Sender to transfer funds to a Recipient through electronic means. These Terms of Use affect your rights, you should read them carefully.

You are signing up to use Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union's P2P service that allows you to send funds to another person. You agree to conduct the transfers offered through the Service by electronic means and acknowledge that all documents, disclosures, forms, and other information related to such transactions will be provided to you through a mobile or web-based electronic interface or email. Each time you use this Service and submit information to Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union, you agree to the electronic access, receipt, and acceptance of documents, disclosures, and forms. You may not use this service unless you agree to receive documents by electronic means.

You further agree that you intend to electronically contract with us for the Service and that all transactions completed through this Service will result in valid and legally binding agreements. You also agree that you have adequate access to a computer or mobile smart phone with sufficient internet connectivity to conduct these transactions online.

You agree to receive all legal and regulatory notices, disclosures, and other communications associated with your registration or use of this Service through electronic means, including web-based electronic interface, mobile phone interface, or email.

To use this Service, you must provide your current email address so we can send you important information related to your use of this Service. You may review and update the personal information maintained about you in the "Settings"- "Address Change" section of the Site at any time to ensure it is accurate.

Unauthorized use of these systems is strictly prohibited and is subject to prosecution under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 and Title, U.S. Code Sec. 1001 and 1030. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union or its Service Provider may monitor and audit usage of this system. You are hereby notified that the use of this system constitutes consent to such monitoring and auditing.

Any account accessed through the Service is also subject to the terms and conditions of your account. You should review the Membership Agreement carefully, as they may include transaction limitations and fees that might apply to your use of the Service.

Eligibility

Individuals aged 19 years and older with Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union are eligible to use this Service to send funds to a Recipient. Any individual age 19 years and older with an account in the United States that may receive point of sale (POS) or ACH transactions may use this Service to receive funds transferred by the Sender. The Service is not offered to individuals under the age of 19. Other restrictions and eligibility requirements apply as described in this Agreement or other disclosures. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union does not knowingly collect any personal information from or about individuals under 19 years of age. Please do not submit such information to the Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union, and as a parent or legal guardian, please do not allow your children to submit personal information without your permission. By using the Site or the Service, you represent that you meet these requirements.

You may make one-time transfers by entering your name, your email address, nickname for recipient, email address/cell number and confirm email address/cell number. The Sender provides the Recipient's email address/cell number and confirms email address/cell number. A recipient must first create an account to receive payments. Recipient must enter an email address for user name and a preferred password. The Recipient must also confirm the email address and preferred password. The email address will serve as the Recipient's login user name. A Recipient must accept the transfer within 24 hours, or the Transfer will be cancelled. Funds will not be taken out of the Sender's account til Recipient accepts the Payment Invitation. Once the Recipient has successfully accepted the Payment Invitation, funds will be sent for deposit to Recipient's account after cut off time of 4:00PM on Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union's business day. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union is not responsible for any failure of another financial institution to timely credit the Recipient's account.

You acknowledge and agree that Transfers will be completed using only the email address or mobile phone number you enter even if it identifies a person different from your intended Recipient. The name you enter will help you identify your intended Recipient in the drop down menu and your transaction history but will not be used to process payments. You acknowledge and agree that Transfers will be completed using the email address or mobile phone number you enter even if it identifies a person different from your intended Recipient. The name you enter will help you identify your intended Recipient in the drop down menu and your transaction history. You must accurately enter the Recipient's email address or mobile phone number since your obligation to pay for the Transfer will not be excused by an error in the information you enter.

Transfer instructions relating to external accounts and the transmission and issuance of data related to such Transfer Instructions shall be received pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA) and the applicable automated clearing house, as well as any EFT Network, or networks, utilized to automate the transfer of funds and governed by Regulation E, (collectively, the "Rules"). The parties agree to be bound by such Rules as in effect from time to time. In accordance with such Rules, any credit to an Account shall be provisional until the Credit union or the third party institution, which holds the account, has finally settled such credit.

It is the responsibility of the Sender and Recipient of funds to provide accurate information. You agree that you as Sender are authorized to withdraw or as Recipient are authorized to deposit funds into the Accounts whose numbers you provide or into the Accounts associated with the card number you are providing. You authorize Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union, directly or through third parties, to make any inquiries considered necessary to validate your identity. This may include asking you for further information, requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or financial instruments, ordering a credit report and verifying your information against third party databases or through other sources.

You authorize the Credit Union to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize the crediting of your account.

Sender Acknowledgement

By using this Service you, as the Sender, authorize the sending of an email or text message instructing the Recipient how to receive the funds that you are sending. You are further authorizing any Recipient of this message to act on the instructions to receive the funds you are sending. You acknowledge that any party receiving the email message at the email address you provide or text message at the mobile phone number you provide may obtain the funds you are sending.

You acknowledge and agree that Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union is not responsible for determining the identity of the party who receives the email or text message and acts upon the email or text message you provide. Your funds may not reach the intended Recipient because of errors made by the Sender or Recipient and you could lose all the funds. E funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union. If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly, call us immediately and we may be able to cancel the Transfer. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Sender's instructions. Furthermore, we may reject any Transfer request and may terminate your use of the Service for any reason including attempting insufficient funded Transfers.

Recipient Acknowledgement

By using this Service you as the Recipient are confirming that you are the person to whom the Sender intends to transfer funds. As the Recipient, you will be asked to provide account information including, date of birth, account number and routing information for your financial institution. The funds will be transferred through the Automated Clearing House.

It is important that you enter accurate information. You agree Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union, the receiving financial institution and our Service Provider may rely solely on the instructions you provide. If you enter inaccurate account number information, the funds may be deposited into another person's account. You acknowledge that the financial institution may make the deposit based on the account number you provide even if those numbers do not correlate to the name that you provide. Retrieval of these funds will be the Recipient's responsibility to work with the financial institution to which the funds were sent. You may lose all the funds that were transferred. The funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by us.

If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly or that you have received funds in error, call us immediately and we may attempt to cancel the transaction. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Recipient's instructions.

By using this Service you agree that you are the intended recipient of the email or text message and that you are the intended recipient of the funds. If you are not the person to whom the funds are intended then you agree to take no further action. You understand that it is a federal felony to use another person's identification with the intent to commit unlawful activity. You represent that the information you are providing is your true and correct information. If any information you provide is fraudulent, Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union reserves the right to recover all costs or losses from you, regardless of whether such costs or losses are incurred directly or indirectly.

You may transfer up to $2,500.00 per day and a maximum of $10,000 per month. The number of transactions is limited to 5 per day. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union may modify the amount and frequency of Transfers at any time for security reasons or due to account activity.

Funds may be transferred from shares or share draft account. Such transfers may overdraw your account and result in an insufficient funds fee or may result in a transfer from another account to cover the overdraft. In any of these situations, a fee will be charged as applicable. You may be denied service for insufficient funds in your account. You will be responsible for any other transaction fees that apply to your account.

Please note that your mobile carrier may charge you for text messaging. Please check your mobile service agreement for details on applicable fees. The receiving institution may have limits on the number and type of Transfers allowed. Your financial institution may also charge a transaction fee.

Timing of Transfers

Transfers to remove the funds from the Sender's account may take place immediately. However, the timing of funds received will depend on when the Recipient responds to the email and when their financial institution posts the Transfer. The posting of the Transfer is dependent on the business days of that institution.

Issues Affecting the Posting of Transfers

You authorize us to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union to credit your account using NACHA.

Other events may affect the timing or success of a Transfer reaching the intended Recipient. Such events may include, but are not limited to, errors made by the Sender or Recipient in entering information, inaccurate account or routing information, delays in posting by the receiving institution, acts of God, and network and NACHA interruptions. If we believe the Transfer may be illegal, we may decline or reverse the Transfer. The receiving institution may choose not to post the Transfer or to delay posting the Transfer. Neither Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union nor the Service Provider is responsible for any delays in the Transfer of funds or the posting of funds to the Recipient's Account. You may have certain rights and responsibilities regarding the failure to timely post transactions and you are encouraged to pursue dispute resolution with the receiving financial institution.

Financial institutions have rules and regulations that govern their accounts. Some of these regulations may not allow an ACH transfer of funds. You are responsible for ensuring that these types of Transfers are allowed for the Account that you specify. For example, an IRA may not allow electronic transfers directly into the Account. We are not responsible for any action or lack of action taken by the financial institution that delays, inhibits, or prevents the posting of the Transfer to the Account.

The Sender and Recipient of funds may choose to register for this Service to simplify their future use of the Service. They will be asked to create a username and password and you are responsible for keeping them secure. We will not ask you for your password.

If the financial institution contacts us or our Service Provider for information regarding your Account, you authorize us to discuss the Transfer and the account information you have provided.

Security

Cookies, Browser Information and Related Issues

When you visit the Site, the Service Provider may receive certain standard information that your browser sends to every website you visit, such as the originating IP address, browser type and language, access times and referring website addresses, and other information. This data may be used, among other uses, to improve the operation of the Site and to improve the security of the Site and Service by assisting in “authenticating” who you are when you access the Site or Service, particularly if you register for the Service and are issued or create a username and password.

The Service Provider may also receive additional information about your visit to the Site, including the pages you view, the links you click and other actions you take in connection with the Site and the Service. This data may be used, among other uses, to improve the operation of the Site and the Service.

Like most websites, the Site also uses “cookies,” which are small data files placed on your computer or other device by the web server when you visit the Site. Most such cookies are “session” cookies that are only used for a specific period during which you are on the Site, but a few are “persistent” cookies that stay on Your hard drive and are read by the web server when you return to the Site (unless you erase them). The Site uses cookies to store your preferences and other information on your computer in order to save you time by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information on your computer in order to save you time by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information and to display your personalized content on your later visits to the Site. These cookies are linked to personal information about you, such as your email address. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. However, if you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to sign in or use other interactive features of the Site that depend on cookies.

You may encounter the Service Provider's cookies or pixel tags on websites that we do not control. For example, if you view a web page created by a third party or use an application developed by a third party, there may be a cookie or pixel tag placed by the web page or application.

Access to Information about You

You may review and update the personal information maintained about you in the "Settings"- "Address Change" section of the Site at any time to ensure that it is accurate.

Once you close your Accounts with Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union, you may no longer send Transfers. However your Account information will be maintained for a retention period to accommodate any residual issues that may arise.

Amendments

Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union may amend these Terms of Use or any other disclosures at any time by posting a revised version on the Site. The revised version will be effective immediately at the time it is posted, unless a delayed effective date is expressly stated therein. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union may also provide you with an email notification of such amendments. Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union may require you to affirmatively acknowledge or accept the revised Terms of Use in order to continue using the Service. Any use of the Service after a notice of change (whether by Site posting, email, or express acknowledgement or acceptance) will constitute your express agreement to such changes.

Limitations of Warranties

The Site and Service and related documentation are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to, the implied warranties of title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. In particular, we do not guarantee continuous, uninterrupted or secure access to any part of our service, and operation of the Site may be interfered with by numerous factors outside of our control. Some states do not allow the disclaimer of certain implied warranties, so the foregoing disclaimers may not apply to you. This paragraph gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other legal rights that vary from state to state.

The foregoing shall constitute your exclusive remedies and the entire liability of Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union and its affiliates and service providers and the employees and contractors of each of these, for the service and the portion of the site through which the service is offered. You acknowledge and agree that from time to time, the service may be delayed, interrupted or disrupted periodically for an indeterminate amount of time due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including, but not limited to, any interruption, disruption or failure in the provision of the service, whether caused by strikes, power failures, equipment malfunctions or other reasons.

Limitation on Liability

In no event shall Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union or its affiliates or service providers or the employees or contractors of any of these, be liable for any claim arising from or related to the service caused by its affiliates or service providers or the employees or contractors of any of these, be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, consequential, or exemplary damages, including loss of goodwill or lost profits (even if advised of the possibility thereof) arising in any way out of the installation, use, or maintenance of the service or the portion of the site through which the service is offered, even if such damages were reasonably foreseeable and notice was given regarding them.

Limitation on Damages

Credit Union's aggregate liability and the aggregate liability of its affiliates and service providers and the employees and contractors of each of these, to you and any third party for any and all claims or obligations relating to this agreement shall be limited to direct out of pocket damages up to a maximum of $500.00. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you.

Time for Making a Claim

In no event shall Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union or its affiliates or service providers or the employees or contractors of any of these be liable for any claim arising from or related to the service or the portion of the site through which the service is offered that you do not state in writing in a complaint filed in a court of competent jurisdiction within two (2) years of the date that the event giving rise to the claim occurred. These limitations will apply to all causes of action, whether arising from breach of contract, tort (including negligence), or any other legal theory.

Severability

If any provision of these Terms of Use is found to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible, and the remaining provisions will remain in full force.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold Alabama Rural Electric Credit Union and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, consultants, agents, service providers and licensors harmless from any and all third party claims, liability, damages, and/or costs (including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from your use of the Service, our reliance on the Transfer instructions and other information you provide, the performance or non-performance of other financial institutions, or other signers, owners or users of your account.
